

Workshop

Thursday, 25 October 2018

Post-Brexit Europe: Lessons from the European Economic Area (EEA): An institutional perspective

Introduction and Key Note

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 10:15 | Welcome |
| 10:20 | Brainstorming on Brexit and the EEA: Practical considerations and political feasibility |
| 10:45 | Liechtenstein's perspective on Brexit
Esther Schindler, Brexit Coordinator, Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Justice and Culture |
| 11:05 | Discussion |
| 11:35 | Coffee Break |

Session I: Explanations of institutionalised arrangements for integration into EU

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 11:50 | Same policies – different institutions: Scope of EFTA and EEA Agreement
Georges Baur |
| 12:10 | Demand for and supply of different institutional arrangements
Christian Frommelt, Liechtenstein Institute |
| 12:30 | Discussion |
| 13:00 | Buffet Lunch |

Session II: Effectiveness of institutional arrangements

- 14:00 European integration and sovereignty: A challenge for citizenship and democracy
John Erik Fossum, ARENA, University of Oslo
- 14:20 European integration and national Parliaments
Julie Smith, University of Cambridge/House of Lords
- 14:40 Discussion
- 15:10 Coffee Break

Session III: Specific challenges of European integration

- 15:30 The Swiss-EU umbrella agreement in the shadow of Brexit
Joëlle de Sepibus
- 15:50 Brexit and Financial Services in the EU and EEA
Nicolas Raschauer, University Liechtenstein (tbc)
- 16:10 Discussion

Session IV: Post-Brexit Europe

- 16:40 Institutionalised arrangements for integration into the EU in post Brexit Europe
Sieglinde Gstöhl, College of Europe, Bruges
- 17:00 Scenarios for the development of the EU
Maximilian Conrad, University of Iceland, Reykjavík
- 17:20 Discussion

Closing remarks

- 17:50 Do we need a reform of the EEA Agreement?
Christian Frommelt, Liechtenstein Institute
- 18:15 Workshop Dinner – Restaurant Löwen, Bendern

The event is organised as part of European Union's Jean Monnet Project 'Post-Brexit Europe: Lessons from the European Economic Area (EEA)'

